HONORING MARY ELLEN MILLER

Vice President of Development, Girls Who Code

Friday, May 4, 2018 • 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The Grand Ballroom at The Plaza • 770 Fifth Avenue at Central Park South, NYC

Mary Ellen Miller oversees the fundraising and partner engagement teams at Girls Who Code, one of the fastest growing non-profits in the country. Her team raises over $10 Million annually from the largest corporations in America. Prior to joining Girls Who Code, she worked at iMentor, Operation Smile and practiced law as a litigator for seven years. We honor her achievements and the impact she and her organization is making on young women's lives.

The Woman of Achievement Award Luncheon is Women in Development, New York's highest profile event. Its purpose is to recognize and promote the achievements of a woman who has significantly advanced the field of development and philanthropy, to celebrate the profession and its contributions to the nonprofit sector and society, and to inspire attendees. Over 300 development professionals, philanthropists and nonprofit volunteer leaders attend annually.
